Last Call For Local Unions!

IBEW Register to Vote Contest

VOTE

In the first week of August, International President Ed Hill announced on the IBEW's web site (www.ibew.org) that all local unions were invited to join a contest to register voters for the 2004 elections. Voter registration deadlines are fast approaching for all states. This is the last call for local unions to step up to the plate and hit a home run in registering new voters.

Awards will be given to:

- one local in each Vice Presidential District which shows the highest percentage improvement in registered voters
- one local in each Vice Presidential District which shows the highest percentage of registered voters in 2004

To participate in this contest: Local union Mobilization 2004 coordinators (or political representatives) should report all voter registration percentages to your District's Mobilization 2004 coordinator directly following the expiration of registration deadlines in your state. Deadlines are listed below and on the IBEW's web site.
